The 'Mass Intention' will be passed on to the Clergy and will be prayed by them during their daily Mass.

The historical context of making a donation was seen as a way for the people to be part of a Mass. The offering was called a Mass stipend (a fee for a service) but today it is usually called a Mass Intention. Those offerings are a source of income for the clergy. Therefore, they are given as a donation of food or money to enable priests to live.
